Notice to Mail Subscribers.

Subscribers are supplied with a notice of the date their subscription will expire ten days in advance of the time; and again with a second notice on the day the last copy paid for is sent. This will enable all persons to keep the run of their accounts, and to renew in time not to miss an issue of the paper.

We publish in another column an anti-slavery circular, signed by a committee, and calling for a meeting of those engaged in the cause of emancipation, to be held in this city on the 21st of February. Those favorable to the object, it will be seen, are invited to be up and doing, to send delegates. The committee hall from several States. They have come to the conclusion that slavery must be destroyed,

and the institutions of all the States assimilated

before there can be peace. We should be sorry to believe that philosophy. When one sees in politics undertakes to propagate his creed, and will be satisfied with nothing less,

it is a prejudice to a long struggle.

They want their notions to be made a test of loyalty. They want the assurance that there will be no relinquishing of the object by the Federal Government; for they are in for extermination of one set of opinions, and if they don't succeed, then the opposite opinions may become intolerant and leave them in the mud.

This seems to be rather a private letter, to be handed out. We have not seen it in any of the press. We publish it without charge, but they owe us ten cents a line and ought to pay it. They should not be shy about the matter. This is a day for all sorts of theories. Let them be ventilated. Those that can't hear the light will die.

In our opinion there is a good deal of nonsense in this circular, and the policy it proposes very pernicious. If they can persuade the people of a State to abolish slavery, it is their right to do it; but when they conclude that they have rubbed out the cause of this and future rebellions, they are wide of the mark.

If they keep up this war until a majority

South agree with them, we fear the war will last a long time. In our opinion the manner in which the subject is to be treated upon the abolition theory, may defeat, at last, in spite of all appearances, the whole legitimate object of the war.

HARD TIMES IN DIXIE.—We have often had

it foretold that the South would be exhausted

in a few months; that no more men or equipment could be had at all adequate to the wants of the Richmond government. Such predictions have heretofore not established the credit of their authors as prophets. It may be that all this augurs may fall now. We hear of desertions and disaffection which may prove ex-aggerations; but there are troubles involving the Confederacy that will test the whole power of the concern. Men may yet be had to keep up formidable armies; but the supplies are getting scarce, not because there is not, perhaps, plenty in the South, if it were daily distributed, but it is not so distributed,

and the money necessary to bring out what's available is wanting. There is no currency

worth anything in Dixie. Promises to pay

do not pass. These hard times will disgust soldiers. Armies are patriotic; but if a soldier gets no pay and nothing to eat, his zeal or his patriotism is not up to last. It will be seen, moreover, that there is a serious disaffection of the South, and that it is not easy to keep it up. It is not so distributed,

and the money necessary to bring out what's

available is wanting. There is no currency

worth anything in Dixie. Promises to pay

CITY NEWS.

To the Advertising Patrons of the Democrat.

We have already notified many of the advertising patrons of the Democrat that owing to the advancing price of everything used in the publication of a newspaper, and the increased wages of printers and others, we are compelled to adopt a new scale of rates, to commence on the 1st of January, 1864.

We have inclosed a circular to our advertisers generally. The rates will apply to all old patrons, as well as new ones. This change is imperatively demanded by our increased expense in producing the paper, and is reluctantly asked. When the greatly increased circulation of the Democrat is taken into account, the schedule rates do not make it more costly in proportion to publicity given than it has been heretofore.

If any of our old patrons do not feel inclined to adopt the new rates they will please inform us; and should we not, in a reasonable space of time, hear from them, we shall consider them as having assented to the changes. If any desire to change their mode of advertising, or to increase or reduce the quantity of matter, they will please call at the office.

OUR JOB PRINTING DEPARTMENT.—We have recently made large additions and greatly extended our facilities for neat and expeditious printing in all varieties of plain and fancy copies. Our office is fully prepared to do all kinds of poster and bill printing, programmes and sales bills and bill heads, cards and all descriptions of mercantile printing. We are just in receipt of many tons of new type especially adapted to railroad and steamboat printing, and we are ready to do any amount of work in this line. With presses adapted to every variety of work to be done, and all run by steam, we have such facilities as few possess. Try us and learn prices.

POLICE COURT.—Monday, January 25, 1864.—Eighteen is the lucky number, this beautiful morning, on morning, on various charges, as will be seen below.

Mrs. O'Brien, drunk and disorderly conduct. She found her way into the National Hotel at a late hour; let off on promise.

John Ryan, Jr., Williams, Dennis Connors and Wm. Taylor, all small boys, a portion of the Forties—well known, they are, as hangers-on to the army; sent out for three months.

Jeff. Henthorn, abuse of his wife; $100 to keep the peace three months; sent out.

Isaac Full, drunk and exposing his person; fined $30. Sent out to work it out at 75 cents per day.

Wm. Ward, Eugene Penton and John W. Athen, stealing three coats from Abraham Davis, each cost worth $30, on Saturday morning; $300 to answer in Circuit Court. Bailed.

James Murray and James Baily, drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and obstructing the course of public justice; $200 for six months—went out.

Francis McLaughlin, charged with maiming James Murphy, biting of his lip, a la Heenan, rough and tumble fight, both bloody and considerably bunged up $300 to answer a felony.

John Mahan, Wm. Slatery and John Egan, charged with robbing Peter Conlin of $115; heard in part and continued.

A warrant issued against Edward Vinecore was dismissed, witnesses not appearing.

Wm. McAlair, obtaining $25, under false pretences, from Peter Conally; no felony—discharged.

RICHARD ROBERTS.—THE THIEVES CAUGHT. A few evenings since an old gentleman, who was a stranger on a visit to the city, was assaulted on Market street by three cut-throats, who knocked him down with slugs and robbed him of what money he had, which was a little upwards of one hundred dollars. For some time no trace as to who committed the murderous assault and highway robbery could be found. The facts in the case were related to the officers, and yesterday officers Lambourn and Auld succeeded in arresting the three villains who committed the outrage. They gave their names as Thomas Sweeney, Mike Murry and John McGraw. They were lodged in the jail, and will have a hearing before Judge Johnston this morning.

POLICE COURT.—MONTHLY STATEMENT.—The business transacted in the Police Court is large. During the month of December the following cases were disposed of:

For disorderly conduct..... 28
 For felony..... 61
 For suspended felons..... 14
 For misdemeanors..... 27
 For assault..... 27
 For vagrancy..... 2
 For murder..... 2
 For peace warrants..... 8
 For violations of jury..... 25

It will be seen by the above that during the month of December three hundred and thirty-four cases were disposed of, and of these thirty-four were for felony.

We would write the attention of our merchants and others in want of policies in good, safe and reliable companies, to the statements of the Merchants, City Fire and New England Insurance companies, of Hartford, Conn., our old friends, W. S. Vernon & Sons, are the agents, and would be pleased to issue policies on most all kinds of property at low rates. Losses will be promptly paid by them. Give them a call.

CONFISCATED.—On Sunday thirty-four confessions on the wharf were closed by order of Major Fitch, Provost Marshal, for selling liquor to soldiers. Yesterday the liquor found in the houses was confiscated and the proprietors were put under bonds in sums varying from $2,000 to $5,000 for their good behavior.

DISTINGUISHED ARRIVAL.—Major General Grant, from Nashville for St. Louis, and Major General Stoneman, from the Army of the Potomac, en route for Chattanooga, passed through the city yesterday. Brigadier General Breaux also arrived, and is stopping at the Galt House.

The passenger train that left this city last Sunday morning, which was due at Nashville at 5 p. m., did not arrive there until 2:40 o'clock yesterday. The delay was occasioned by a freight train jumping off the track. No one hurt.

The rebel General Vance, whose capture was mentioned in the Democrat of Saturday, was brought to this city yesterday and confined in the military prison. He will, we learn, be sent to Camp Chase this morning.

Yesterday a number of rebel officers, who have been confined in the military prison on here, were sent forward to Camp Chase, there to be confined until exchanged.

We learn that the gallant Twenty-first Kentucky have repulsed, and that they will arrive here to-night on a furlough of thirty days.

The civil term of the Jefferson circuit court commenced yesterday morning. No business of public interest was transacted.

The mailboats between this place and Cincinnati have resumed their trips, the first one leaving Sunday.

THE BREAKING UP OF THE ICE.

Coal Boats Sunk—A Number of Barges Carried Over the Falls—The Melnotte and Swallow Narrowly Escape Sinking—Other Items.

On Sunday the river commenced rising from the effects of the January thaw, which we are now experiencing, and yesterday it was swelling rapidly, having swollen up to the present writing fully two feet at this point and six feet at the Portland wharf. This sudden rise in the river, as we predicted, caused the ice at this place to give way, and it swept over the falls with a crash, which could be heard for a considerable distance.

The severe winter weather we have experienced for the past several days, so softened the ice that the destruction of property was not as great as it was feared it would be, yet considerable damage was done. The river was so full of running ice that the mailboat was unable to go out yesterday, but the Jeffersonville ferry, under the supervision of that efficient superintendent, Ed. Buckner, was enabled to make trips during the day.

A number of coal-boats which were tied to the Jeffersonville wharf near Howard's ship-yard were struck by the ice, and one of them, the coal boat, was sunk. To whom the boat belonged we were unable to learn. A large coal boat, also, was sunk, and the crew, who were on board half full of coal, lying just above Clay street, was also cut down by the ice and sunk. The coal in these boats will be partially saved.

Along this side of the river from Tow-head to the foot of Second street were a large number of coal-boats loaded, and also a number of empty barges, the majority of which were saved, owing to the precaution the coal dealers had taken by chartering the low-boats Co. to break the ice during Saturday and Sunday. A number of barges which were lying at the wharf at a point where the current is strong were carried over the falls, and so strong was the current that the cables with which the boats were fastened to the shore were snapped in two in a moment, and the boats were swept over the falls. Upon diligent inquiry we learned that the number carried over the falls was seven, including two wood boats loaded with wood. Upon the wood boats were three men who were unable to get off, and they were carried off with the boats. How the boats passed over the falls amid the floating ice, is truly miraculous. We were unable to learn whether there were any persons on the other boats that were carried over the falls.

In the morning the steamer Melnotte, which arrived from Cincinnati for Memphis, with a large and varied cargo, landed near the foot of Clay street, on the outside of the coal boats, where the steamer Swallow was also lying. About one o'clock the Melnotte was struck on the larboard side amidships and stored in. She shipped water fast, and it was only by the hardest work that she was kept afloat. The boat had steam up and she was run up to the center of Tow-head, where she landed and commenced unloading her cargo. At the time we left her (at half past ten o'clock) the freight in her hold was being removed and one pump was kept continually at work to keep the boat afloat. The hold was filled with whiskey, corn and salt, which will be saved in a damaged condition. The Swallow was also caught in the floating ice and narrowly escaped sinking. While endeavoring to extricate herself from her precarious situation, she ran against a flatboat and sunk it.

Several narrow escapes from drowning were made. One man was crossing from the Kentucky shore to Tow-head, when the ice gave way and he was thrown into the water between the running ice, and would have met with a watery grave had it not been for some persons near by, who went to his rescue in a skill. We heard of several other narrow escapes, but owing to the lateness of the hour at which we returned from the steamer Melnotte, which lies near the Beargrass cut-off, we are unable to make particular mention of all. As far as we were able to learn, no lives were lost.

The gorge above Tow-head, on the Kentucky shore, has not yet given way, but will probably do so to-day. Some few persons are taking that when this gives way that there will be considerable damage done the coal-boats lying at Tow-head.

FROM KNOXVILLE.—Yesterday we had the pleasure of conversing with a gentleman just from Knoxville, who informs us that there is skirmishing constantly going on near there, between our forces and the rebel cavalry. Our forces there are in excellent spirits, and will be able to hold their ground against any force that the rebels can send against them. The rebels come into our lines almost daily and surrender themselves. A few days since one party of four hundred came in and voluntarily took the oath of allegiance to the Federal Government. We also learn from the same gentleman that in the late attack of Wheeler upon one of our wagon trains, the rebels were repulsed with a loss of one hundred and thirty-one killed, wounded and taken prisoners. Our loss was only four wounded.

In the Evening News of yesterday we stated that two persons, one of them a female in soldier clothes, had been brought to this city as rebel spies. The woman, whose name is Emma Boston, was once a theater actress of some notoriety in New York city, and the man arrested at the same time was her husband. Mrs. Boston was arrested in Lexington, dressed in Federal uniform, and had, we are informed, just come from the South. The couple were placed in the military prison, where they will be confined until tried by a military court.

BARRECKS ITEMS.—Forty-two convalescent soldiers from different points and nine deserters from Cincinnati were received at Barrecks No. 1 yesterday. Two hundred and eight convalescents were transferred to their regiments, and the following deserters were sent off in Irons: Fontaine to Lexington, to Camp Nelson, two to New Haven, and fifteen to Nashville. The guard-house connected with the barracks is full of soldiers, arrested for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

ARREST OF DESERTERS.—On yesterday four deserters were arrested in this city by the Provost Guard. They belonged to the Tenth Ohio and Seventh Pennsylvania cavalry regiments and the Sixty-third Illinois Infantry. They were confined in Barrecks No. 1, where they will be kept until tried by court-martial. There are at present confined in the barracks a large number of deserters—some awaiting trial and others to be sent to their regiments.

During the last term of the Circuit Court Wm. Brockman was convicted of manslaughter in the death of a man named Connelley in the penitentiary. His friends here are endeavoring to have the case carried before the Court of Appeals, and we learn that a bill of exceptions has been made out. Brockman was not sent to Frankfort, but is still confined in the jail in this city.

In the Democrat some time since we published the particulars of one hundred and fifty Indiana soldiers having died from exposure and the want of food, while on the march from Cumberland Gap to this place. Gov. Morton has officially announced his intention to investigate the case.

The Forty-fourth Indiana, one company of the Sixteenth Kentucky, and one company of the Forty-fourth Illinois, re-enlisted veterans, arrived in this city yesterday.

To Mr. Wistermuth, of the Louisville and Nashville river, we are under obligations for late and repeated favors shown this office.

Amusements.

Wood's Theatre.—The boxes last night presented a dazzling array of the beauty and talent of the city, all of whom were drawn to the city theatre to witness the performance of the wily Cardinal Richelieu. Of Mr. B. R. interpretation of the wily Cardinal we have heretofore spoken in terms of the warmest commendation, and we see no cause to change our opinion. The play-goers of this city were never more keen for good acting than at the present time, and they may rest assured there will be no lack of it at this theater during the week.

Tonight Mr. B. will appear as Richard III, which will afford him an opportunity to display his wonderful powers as the crook-backed tyrant. Between pieces the orchestra will perform a choice morceau from the opera of "Fidelio," arranged expressly for this theater by Mr. John Bernard; to conclude with the force of "Loan of a Lover," in which Miss Kitty Blanchard will play Desdemona, introducing several songs. Of the merits of this modest and unassuming young artist we have had more to say heretofore. Her talents as a dancer are firmly established, and the time is not far distant when she will take equal rank as a first-class actress.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.—The beautiful and charming actress, Miss Avelon Jones, continues to attract large audiences at this popular place of amusement. Last night she appeared in the new play, written expressly for her, entitled "Garcia," or, the School of Life," which place will be repeated again tonight.

GEORGETOWN.—Tom Thibault and wife, and Commodore Nott and Miss Minnie Warren, four of the smallest people in the world, will make their first appearance at Masonic Temple to-day.
